

Table of Contents ONLY

Download full resource at ncdbw.org

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	1
Introduction.....	5
Incarcerated Women in the U.S.: A Brief Overview .....	5
▪ Becoming familiar with experiences of incarcerated women .....	5
▪ A note about language .....	7
▪ Purpose and structure of the group .....	9
▪ Goals and objectives of the group .....	9
▪ Structural considerations of the group format .....	10
▪ Criteria for participation for groups .....	10
▪ Time of day .....	11

- Frequency and duration ..... 12
- Open groups, closed groups, and mixed groups..... 12
- Roles of facilitators in jail..... 14
- Roles of facilitators in prison ..... 14
- Identifying “outside” group facilitators ..... 15
- Identifying “inside” facilitators: Co-facilitating with women in prison..... 17
- General information about group facilitation ..... 17
- Evaluation..... 18
- Group guidelines ..... 18
  - Confidentiality..... 18
  - Issues of power, privilege & oppression within groups..... 21
- Certificates and letters of support ..... 22
  - Giving certificates and or writing support letters ..... 22
- Jail or prison administration, staff, and rules ..... 25
  - Relationships with administration and staff ..... 25
  - Jail or prison staff and confidentiality ..... 26
  - Jail or prison rules ..... 27
  - A special note about institutional practices in response to suicide ..... 28
- Group topics ..... 30
  - Healing tools and strategies..... 30
  - Domestic violence within the prison..... 33
  - Grief and guilt..... 39
  - Supporting survivors who are about to be released..... 42
  - Unique safety issues facing formerly incarcerated battered women..... 44
- Other possible forms of advocacy or support..... 46
  - Training women in prison to serve as their own group facilitators or as peer educators..... 47
  - Newsletters..... 47
  - Support or help organize once-a-year domestic violence awareness (or other) events ..... 47
  - Meet with established groups or classes on a quarterly basis..... 48
  - Individual/collective advocacy (i.e., pre-trial advocacy, parole support, clemency) ..... 48

Conclusion ..... 48

Additional resources ..... 49

- References cited..... 49
- Resources specific to incarcerated women’s histories of abuse..... 52
- General information about incarcerated women & mass incarceration..... 53
- Information about women’s experiences of returning to the community after prison ..... 53
- Information about prison-based arts groups & collections of writings by incarcerated women ..... 54
- Curricula and workbooks addressing abuse & other forms of trauma ..... 54
- Resources for preventing and responding to incidents of abuse..... 56
- Documentaries about incarcerated battered women..... 56